SOUTHEAST COLORADO ART GUILD

The Southeast Colorado Art Guild was formed in 1969 to promote the visual arts in the area. The main emphasis of the Guild is its Autumn Art Show. However, over the years the Guild has awarded scholarships to budding artists, donated a pottery wheel, kiln, and printing press to Lamar Community College for use by the community, and donated several art video cassettes to the Lamar Library for public viewing. Workshops and seminars are also part of our emphasis.

This year, financial constraints forced the guild to revamp the prize structure by reducing the number of categories to 5, with two levels of competition—professional and non professional. We also have included a youth level at reduced entry cost to encourage art participation by young people. Art supplies are being awarded to prize winners in the youth division.

The larger cash awards for professional competition is designed to encourage professional artists from further away to compete in our show. It is our goal to make the annual Autumn Art Show an important event on the art calendar for artists in a 500 mile radius and an important community opportunity.

This year's show is possible because of the generous support of the following businesses and organizations:

- Rose Ann Yates - SE Colorado Arts Council
- Shawna Hodge - Prowers Medical Center
- Denise Carder - Valley National Bank
- Susan Berquist - Guaranty Abstract
- Joe Giadone - Giadone Insurance
- Bill & Kathy Wootten - Car Palace
- Gene & Sharon Cruikshank - Cruikshank Realty
- John Carder - Rancher's Supply

To these, we offer a great big “THANK YOU!”

We hope you enjoy the show.

Our 2007 Judge

Susan Askey has a degree in art therapy and lives on a ranch with her husband southwest of Pueblo. Her abstract work focuses on southwestern imagery and motifs. She was raised in southern Colorado and imbues her art with a great deal of respect for the land, the environment, indigenous cultures and spiritual enlightenment. Her Navajo Sipapu Series of watercolor collages and ceramics are examples of how she pursues her goal of “taking the viewer on a path through a spiritual opening.”

Susan Askey’s work has been exhibited in Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, Missouri, Wyoming, and in the New England states. Ms. Askey is a member of the Southern Colorado Watercolor Society, the Pikes Peak Watercolor Society, the National Watercolor Society and the Society of Layerists in Multimedia. As an art therapist, she developed and implemented ocular kinesiology workshops for people of all ages in the mental health field. She has written and illustrated an art therapy short story.

Artists Participating in the 2007 Show

The following is a listing in numeric order of entry, the artist's name, level of competition, entry titles, art medium used, and the asking price of the piece. NFS means that the piece is not for sale. We encourage artists to offer their work for sale. We encourage the public to purchase the art offered. You will not get better deals on art than what is available here. You can also negotiate with the artist on price and suitable re-framing for your home or office. Collecting good art is an investment.
